

What was The Creators' rescue plan?

Year: 4 Unit: Salvation
World Views: Christianity and Judaism

Salvation

How does deity reconnect with the god

Disciplinary Concepts
	Theology used
	Impact statement
	Connections and world view statement

Intermediary vocabulary

sin	Doing something that goes against God's rules; it can separate people from God.
salvation	Being saved or helped by God; for Christians, this comes through Jesus, for Jews, through following God's rules.
commandments	God's rules for how to live well with others and stay close to Him.
crucifixion	The way Jesus died on the cross on Good Friday.
resurrection	When Jesus rose from the dead on Easter Sunday, showing he conquered death.

Prior Knowledge

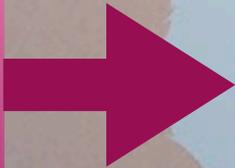

Some Christians believe that when Adam and Eve disobeyed God, sin entered the world.

Christians believe sin separates people from God.

Christians believe Jesus' death and resurrection repaired this relationship, so people can be with God forever.

Some Jews believe God chose Moses to lead the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt.

Jews believe God helped the Israelites through the plagues and the Passover, leading to their freedom.

Key Knowledge:

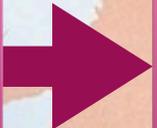

Jews believe God gave the Ten Commandments as rules to help people live well together and stay close to God.

Christians believe Jesus was crucified on Good Friday, meaning he died on a cross as part of God's plan.

Christians believe Jesus died to bring salvation and rose again on Easter Sunday, which is the "good news."

Christians believe salvation comes through following Jesus' example and teachings.

Jews believe salvation comes through following the Ten Commandments and living by God's rules.

Generalisation:

The creator's messages tell us how to live well with ourselves, one another and creation.

The 10 commandments help Jews live well.

Jesus died to bring salvation to people.

The resurrection is proof that Christians should believe in Gods teaching

Rules tell us how to live well with ourselves, one another and creation

The creator's messages tell us how to live well with ourselves, one another and creation.

Opportunities for Spiritual Expression

- Art work
- Reading faith texts
- Drama

Reflection Space

