

What were the creator's messages?

Salvation Vocabulary

| | |
|--------------------|---|
| Salvation | Being rescued or saved. |
| Jesus | The son of God. His name means 'God saves'. |
| Muhammed | The father of the Jews. |
| Qur'an | The holy book of Islam. |
| 5 pillars of Islam | The building blocks to help Muslims live a life of faith, kindness and devotion to God. |

Disciplinary Concepts

| | |
|---|--------------------------------------|
|  | Theology used |
|  | Impact statement |
|  | Connections and world view statement |

Salvation

How does deity reconnect with the god

Prior Knowledge:

- God wants to look after his people
- God sends signs to show he cares.
- Allah wants to look after his people.

Key Knowledge:

- Jesus died on Good Friday.
- Jesus rose on Easter Sunday.
- Salvation means rescuing and Jesus' name means 'God saves'.
- The creator gave Muhammed a special book the Qur'an.
- The creator tells us that a good person works hard to make good choices.
- The creator told Muslims that the 5 pillars help Muslims to lead a good life.
- Muslims go to Mecca because it is the birthplace of Muhammed.
- The creator's messages tell us to live well with ourselves, one another and creation.

Generalisation:

The creator's messages tell us to live well with ourselves, one another and creation.

Opportunities for Spiritual Expression

- Art work
- Reading faith texts
- Drama

Reflection Space

