Prior Knowledge

- There were many humans living on the created world but they were not looking after it.
- God sent a flood as a way to 'reset' the world and help humans to look after the world.
- God wanted the best for His people.
- God sent the Ten Commandments to help people listen to him and follow His plan for them,

Key Knowledge:

The Earth and everything in it are important to God.

God has a unique relationship with human beings as their creator and sustainer.

Jews celebrate Shabat – the day of rest, to remind them of God's creation

Know some Jews believe that The story of Adam and Eve is captured in the sacred text called the Torah.

Generalisation:

God loves His people and wants them to live in freedom. He wants them to be in relationship with Him and be a community.

The 10 Commandments were given as a framework by God as a framework for loving Him and others.

The Commandments point Christians and Jews to know that God loves them and wants a relationship with them.

Communities flourish when rules are clearly set.
