

Year: 2 Unit: Creation
World Views: Christianity and Judaism

What is Creation?

Creation

How world was created and the separation of the deity and humans

Disciplinary Concepts
	Theology used
	Impact statement
	Connections and world view statement

Creation Vocabulary
Bible	The Christian holy book, consisting of the Old and New Testaments.
Torah	The Jewish holy book, consisting of the first five books of the Hebrew Bible.
Garden of Eden	The biblical paradise described in the book of Genesis (Bible), where Adam and Eve lived.
promise	To tell someone that you will certainly do something

Prior Knowledge

- God created the world for humans to look after.
- Creation is the beginning of the Bible.
- God created the world, and it was good.
- Creation is important to the creator, he thought it was good.
- Creation is the beginning of the Quran.
- Allah created the world.
- Creation is important to the creator.
- Creation is the beginning. There is one creator.

Key Knowledge:

- Some Jews believe that God created the Earth in 6 days.
- Some Jews believe that everything on Earth is important and the story of creation is captured in the Torah.
- Some Christians believe that the story of Adam and Eve is captured in the Bible. They lived in the garden of Eden.
- Christians believe the garden of Eden provided everything Adam and Eve needed and they were told to look after it.
- Some Christians believe that Adam and Eve broke their promise and their relationship with God.

Generalisation:

- There is one creator in Christianity.
- Creation, for Jews, is the beginning of everything.
- The Earth is important to God for Jews and Christians.
- Adam and Eve were the first humans.
- Adam and Eve were called to care for the world, we are now the custodians
- God has a special relationship with humans
- God cares for people and has a plan to restore relationship

Opportunities for Spiritual Expression

- Art work
- Reading faith texts
- Drama
- Forest school

Reflection Space

