Prior Knowledge:

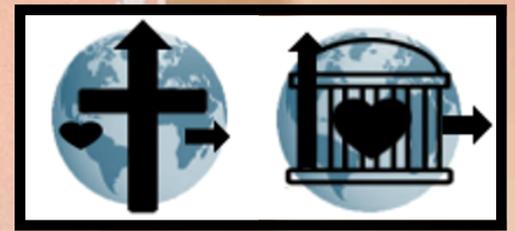

On Good Friday Jesus was crucified on a cross. Crucified means to die on a cross. Although Jesus suffered, he followed through with God's plan. Jesus had faith in God's plan. Jesus died to bring salvation to people. The good news that Jesus has risen from the dead. In the Qu'ran the 5 Pillars of Islam show how to commit to Allah. The 5 Pillars uphold the Islamic faith. Faith – there is one god and his name is Allah. Prayer – pray to Allah 5 times day. Charity – give to the poor. Fasting – time and space to think about Allah. Pilgrimage – undertake a religious journey to Mecca. Mecca is the birth place of Mohammed.

Key Knowledge:

God is the creator and the bible starts with creation. God's promise was broken Adam and Eve which resulted in sin. The people of God continued to sin and not listen to God. God incarnated on earth as Jesus. The events of holy weekend led to salvation. The story of Exodus (ten commandments) predicted God's promise of salvation. The bible story tells of God's love for people. Jesus showed the love of his father through his deeds. Heaven is the promise of after life with God. Christians can be with God forever. Jesus died to bring people salvation. Commitment, belief and practice are important to Allah and Allah values commitment to his wishes. Allah decides who enters paradise – it is at the mercy of Allah on the day of judgement. Muslims need to account for the life lived to Allah on the day on the day of judgement.

Generalisation:

Jesus was crucified and rose from the dead as part of God's rescue plan. Muslims show commitment through the five pillars. God was incarnated as Jesus as a result of Adam and Eve breaking God's promise. God sacrificed his son during Holy week to show his love for people. The creator gives Christians and Muslims guidelines on how to live our lives. The creator wants us to live our lives in this way to reach afterlife with the creator.
