

What symbols and stories help Jewish people to remember their covenant with God?

Year 3/4
Summer 2
Judaism

In this unit I will:

Explore the concept of covenant and how Jewish people keep their promise to God.

Explore the three main covenants of Judaism.

Create a Mezuzah to help me remember a promise.

Explain why Passover is important to Jewish people and how it is celebrated.

Explain why Shavuot is important to Jewish people and understand how it is celebrated.

Key vocabulary

covenant	A special promise or agreement
Ten Commandments	Important rules given by God to help people live good lives
Mezuzah	A small container on a Jewish person's door that reminds them of God's promises
Shabbat	The Jewish day of rest from Friday evening to Saturday evening.
Passover	A festival remembering how God freed the Israelites from slavery in Egypt
Shavuot	A festival celebrating when God gave the Torah (Jewish laws) to Moses.

I should know:

A covenant is a special promise between God and the Jewish people.

There are three key covenants: with Noah, Abraham, and Moses.

The Ten Commandments were part of the covenant with Moses.

A mezuzah on a door reminds Jewish people of their promises to God.

Shabbat is a weekly reminder of the covenant.

Passover and Shavuot are festivals that help Jews remember God's promises.
