

Why do we repair when things go wrong?

Year: 4 Unit: Witness and Worship
World Views: Christianity and Judaism

Witness & Worship

Showing love to the deity and others

Disciplinary Concepts
	Theology used
	Impact statement
	Connections and world view statement

Witness and Worship vocabulary

Witness	Showing what you believe through the way you live.
Worship	How people show love, respect, and thankfulness to God
Atonement	Saying sorry for your wrongs and trying to make it right.
Yom Kippur	The holiest day. A reminder for Jewish people to seek forgiveness for sins.
Bar Mitzvah	When boys are recognised as adults and chose to follow the Jewish faith
Bat Mitzvah	Bat mitzvah is when girls are recognised as adults and chose to follow the Jewish faith.

Prior Knowledge

Some Christians believe that following God involves obedience to spend time in worship.

Christians believe When they are not obedient, they need to say sorry as this helps them stay close to God.

Christians believe it is difficult of understand everything about God.

A Rabbi is a Jewish religious leader

Jews believe Hanukkah is a reminder of God's love for his people

Key Knowledge:

The People of God in the Old Testament are called to be set apart.

The people of God were called to show that they were different because of the way that they live.

Jesus challenges everyone about how to live – he sets the example for loving God and your neighbour, putting others first.

Bar mitzvah is when boys are recognised as adults and chose to follow the Jewish faith.

Bat mitzvah is when girls are recognised as adults and chose to follow the Jewish faith.

Generalisation:

People show faith in different ways.

The People of God were set apart because they kept faith.

Jesus set the example for loving God

Bar Mitzvah is taking on new responsibilities in the Jewish faith.

Bat Mitzvah is taking on new responsibilities in the Jewish faith.

Looking after the world brings Jewish people closer to God.

Through witness and worship, we repair when things go wrong.

Opportunities for Spiritual Expression

- Art work
- Reading faith texts
- Drama

Reflection Space

